

Rains Lucia Stern St. Phalle & Silver proudly presents:

PROTECTING COPS IN THE 21ST CENTURY™

Join us for a one-day, riveting and fast-paced symposium taught by the attorneys at the forefront of hot-button issues affecting law enforcement throughout California.

Topics include:

- Release of “Business Related” Information on an Officer’s Private Electronic Device Under the California Public Records Act.
- Restrictions/Limitations on the Right of a Police Agency to Use Electronic Data (Texts, Emails) to Discipline an Officer After the Information is Discovered Pursuant to a Search Warrant in a Criminal Case.
- Analyzing Video Evidence in Police Use of Force Cases – Interesting Issues in Recent Cases.
- Should an Officer Delay Giving a Statement Following a Critical Incident – What the Latest Studies Tell Us.
- Brady, Pitchess, and Personnel Files – What the Supreme Court will say about the future of “Brady lists” in Light of ALADS v. LA Superior Court (2017).
- Officer-Involved Shootings and the Mentally Ill – Legal and Tactical Issues Facing Officers.
